The Littlejohn Libel Suit .- Dewitt C. Littlejo sgainst Horace Greeley—damages laid at $25,000—tried at the late Oswego Circuit before Judge Bacon, and fully reported for THE TRIBUNE by J. L. Crosby-is published in a nest, co pact pamphlet of 36 pages, and for sale at this office. Price 10 cents. Although the great bulk of the evidence collected for the defense was ruled out by Judge B., yet the opening on that side by ISAIAH T. WILLIAMS, esq., gives a good idea of its character and of the grounds of our dise teem of the New-York legislation of 1860, its engineers, and their instruments. The ngs of Judge BACON and the comments thereon by JOHN K. PORTER, esq., of Albany, deserve and will command the attention of lawyers and jurists. And whoever wants to see whatever can be said against the defendant in this suit by bitter political and general adversary, who knows that he is not to be answered, must be gratified with the summing up for the plaintiff by the Hou. HENRY A. FOSTER. The crossination of the defendant by the Hon. CHAS. B. SEDG-WICK, likewise, presents some noteworthy aspects. As political libel suits are less common than formerly, and as the legislation of 1980 is a subject of enduring interest, we believe many will find this pamphlet worth reading and preserving.

United States Sanitary Commission.-The Sanitary scale.

Under its present orgenization every Camp and Military Hospital from the Potomac to the Missouri is systematically visited and inspected. Definiencies are ascertained, and, so far as possible, supplied. There has accreely been a single company of Volunteers in the field wherein some serious neglector abuse endangering the health of the solider has not been pointed out by the agents of the Commission, and remedited or mitigated. In no case have its services or advice benefited or complaint been made of its embarrassing any officer in the discharge of his duty or interfering with discipline in the smallest degree.

officer in the discharge of his duty or interfering with discipline in the smallest degree.

We have occasion for most profound national thanksgiving in the fact that our armies are passing through the most peritous cascus of the year, not only without destructive spidencies, but with hardly a tenth part of the mortality from disease usual (according to all experience) under the most fiverable conditions. It would be difficult to overestimate the magnitude of the mischief we had every reason to expect, but which seems for the present averted. No human skill or sagacity could have averted it; but it seems neither arrogant nor unreasonable to assert that the labors of the Sanitary Commission have contributed at least as much as any more human agency to this unhoped for result. If so, what contribution to its treasury is not already more thantepald?

After confidential conference with the highest authorities, the Commission feels bound to solicit with urgancy a large and speedy increase of its pocumiary resources.

Donations may be addressed to GEORGE S. COE, eag., Tressurer of the Commission, No. 68 Wallet, N. Y. [COTT.]

"The Sanitary Commission is doing a work of great humanity, and of direct practical value to the nation in this time of its trial. It is entitled to the gratitude and the confidence of the people, and I trust it will be generously supported. There is no agency through which voluntary offerings of patriolism can be more effectively made.

The Herald says:

The Herald says:

"The last scene before the curtain falls is almost thrilling, and beautifully pictorial. The mountains in solemn mejestly rear their felty summits above the pictureage but against addingures taking part in the meles below, while the Captain waves the Stars and Stripes over the precipice in joy of the waves the Stars and Stripes over the precipice in joy of the resone."

The Tribune says:

"The new theater had a great success last evening. The King of the Mountains' is a better show pleee than we have had this season. It has diamatic interest and a pure tone. The acting has remarkably good points. The scenery of the last act is worthy of the warmest praise. The dresses are beautiful. The topic of the hour is touched pleasantly. The Hird of Freedom hovers and protects, but neither swoops nor skriels. There are three tableaux, each one of which was demanded a second time by an extremely favorable and very full house. The last of these equals the best efforts of a management which has given the public many striking pictures. Nothing could surpses, within the same space, the unjesty of the view among the broad and darkling mountains. The painting is by Mr. Isherwood."

The Times:

"From the opening scene to the final tableaux there is a series of picturesque effects and pleasing surprises. Brilliant costumes and admirable scenery flash upon the eyes, while the ear pleased and satafied with dialogue in which wit and genial vivedity always preponderate. It is hardly worth while inquiring how much of this result is due to the dramatist. Nothing can be more certain that a charming novel has been charmingly transplanted to the stage. The tact and good taste of the author has not been unworthily initiated by the dramatist. In the few changes and additions that were necessary to be made, the latter has displayed a dexterous and practiced hand."
